

The Life of Faith

A person wearing a black robe is shown from the chest down, holding a brown book with both hands. The book is open, and the person's hands are positioned as if they are about to read or have just finished reading. The background is dark and out of focus.

Without faith it is impossible to please God, because
anyone who comes
to him must believe
that he exists and
that he rewards
those who earnestly
seek him.

— Hebrews 11:6

The Life of Faith

A glowing blue door is set in a dark, black space. A bright, multi-pointed starburst of light emanates from the top left corner of the door frame. A beam of light extends from the bottom of the door towards the bottom right corner of the image. The text "I Would So Like there to be a Formula" is written in a bold, yellow font across the middle of the image.

“I Would So Like there to be a Formula”

A person wearing black clerical robes is shown from the waist up, holding a brown leather Bible with both hands. The person's face is not visible. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Without faith it is impossible to please
God, because
anyone who comes
to him must believe
that he exists and
that he rewards
those who earnestly
seek him.

— Hebrews 11:6
